Family Record of Daniel D. Otto and His Descendants

In the year of 1865 my Grandfather, Daniel D. Otto of Somerset County, Pennsylvania, in company with Mose Yoder and Daniel Miller, also of Somerset County, loaded their immigrant cars for Arcola, in Douglas County Illinois for a new home in the Western Prairies. Daniel D. Otto located on the farm now owned by Samuel Petershime. Mose located on the farm now owned by his grandson, Abraham D. Yoder. Daniel Miller located on the farm now owned by Edward J. Yoder. Later, Daniel D. Otto bought the farm now owned by his granddaughter, Mrs. Noah A. Yoder. He paid $1,000.00 for 100 acres. He resided on this farm the remainder of his life.

By request of friends, I, Eli M. Otto, a grandson, will by the help of God and friends will give a family record of Daniel D. Otto the best to my knowledge with as few mistakes as possible.

Daniel D. Otto was born February 26, 1834 in Grantsville, Maryland. Was married October 8, 1854 to Barbara Yoder. She was born April 23, 1838. To this union were born twelve children, four boys and eight girls. They all grew to manhood and womanhood except three. His wife, Barbara, died May 3, 1886.

On October 2, 1887, he was married to Eve Mast. She was born February 15, 1828. They were married at the residence of Daniel D. Herschberger in Elk Lick Township, Somerset County, Pennsylvania. To this union no children. Eve died June 14, 1903.
